

Spelling Lesson 6

Plurals of Consonant + "y" Words

- |            |               |
|------------|---------------|
| 1. cities  | 10. berries   |
| 2. copies  | 11. bodies    |
| 3. babies  | 12. ferries   |
| 4. ladies  | 13. families  |
| 5. daisies | 14. companies |
| 6. parties | 15. stories   |
| 7. candies | 16. enemies   |
| 8. puppies | 17. duties    |
| 9. spies   | 18. bakeries  |

Plural means more than one. When a noun ends in a consonant + y, change "y" to "i" and add "es," to make it plural. Practice spelling the words and writing these three dictation sentences.

Plural Noun Dictation Sentences

1. Those two fluffy bunnies rode ponies to the parties.
2. Were the butterflies enemies of the daisies?
3. The babies ate cherries with their families.

Brainbusters

agencies
activities
eighties
centuries
raspberries